

Welcome visitors! We are glad you could worship with us today.

Please sign up on the sheet by the south door if you would like to meet with Pastor & Aimee and a small group over coffee. Pastor Luke & Aimee are excited to get to know you.

Colfax Center 150th Anniversary Team is making a Memories Book for you. Please send you and your family's memories by March 31st to tsimms@gcmuni.net or Sandy Simms, 17921 205th Street, Grundy Center. Please see the insert in your bulletin to make your reservation for our catered meal following morning worship on June 13th.

We are still in need of more nursery volunteers. Please consider this opportunity to serve the young families of our church. It is approximately a once every 10-week commitment. Please contact Pastor Luke (763-670-7337; pastor@colfaxcenterchurch.org) or Karen Dieken (319-240-2728; mkdieken@gmail.com) with questions.

We would love to have your children (age 4 - 3rd grade) participate in our Easter Sunrise Service. They need not have attended Sunday School before. Please begin joining us at 11:00 a.m. weekly. Let's invite all children that might be interested!

A memorial was given to start an Air Conditioning Fund for the educational wing. If you would like to donate to this fund, please designate it on your check or the online giving site.

If you would like old pictures or bibles, duplicates from what the Archive Team is using, please help yourself. They are on the lower level of the Educational Wing, last room on the left (orange room). After Easter, they will be disposed of.

Good Friday Service will begin at 7:00 pm. We hope you will join us.

Please join us and bring your friends and family for our Easter Sunrise Service at 8 a.m. next Sunday. You'll enjoy a service that includes singing by our children. Breakfast will be served immediately following the Sunrise Service downstairs in the Fellowship Hall. Morning Worship will begin at the normal time of 9:30 am. There will be no Coffee Fellowship or Sunday School so you can enjoy the day with family.

For Reflection Before Worship — There can be no doubt but that the multitude saw Jesus' entry to the city in the light of [Zechariah's] prophecy and greeted him as king. Now a king on a donkey was distinctive. The donkey was the mount of a man of peace, a merchant or a priest. A king might ride on a donkey on occasion, but he would be more likely to appear on a mighty warhorse. Zechariah's prophecy saw Messiah as the Prince of peace. The Galilean disciples, now streaming up to Jerusalem for the Passover, knew that Jesus had done many mighty works. They had for a long time watched and waited for him to proclaim himself as the Messiah of their hopes. Now they saw him as doing so. He was riding into the capital in a way that fulfilled the prophecy. He was showing himself to be the Messiah. They did not stop to reflect that he was also proclaiming himself a man of peace and giving no countenance to their nationalistic fervor. They wanted a Messiah. And now they saw one.

Psalm 118:22-26

Pastor: The stone that the builders rejected has become the cornerstone.
This is the LORD's doing; it is marvelous in our eyes.

Congregation: This is the day that the LORD has made; let us rejoice and be glad in it. Save us, we pray, O LORD! O LORD, we pray, give us success!

Pastor: Blessed is he who comes in the name of the LORD! We bless you from the house of the LORD.

Congregation: Oh give thanks to the LORD, for he is good; for his steadfast love endures forever.

Call to Confession

Luke 13:34-35

O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, the city that kills the prophets and stones those who are sent to it! How often would I have gathered your children together as a hen gathers her brood under her wings, and you were not willing! Behold, your house is forsaken. And I tell you, you will not see me until you say, 'Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord!'"

Prayer of Adoration and Confession

Assurance of Pardon

Ephesians 3:14-19

For this reason I bow my knees before the Father, from whom every family in heaven and on earth is named, that according to the riches of his glory he may grant you to be strengthened with power through his Spirit in your inner being, so that Christ may dwell in your hearts through faith—that you, being rooted and grounded in love, may have strength to comprehend with all the saints what is the breadth and length and height and depth, and to know the love of Christ that surpasses knowledge, that you may be filled with all the fullness of God.

Worship Through Giving

(We will continue to collect tithes and offerings in the narthex.)

GHF 42 – All Hail the Power

Confession of Faith

New City Catechism #24

Q: Why was it necessary for Christ, the Redeemer, to die?

A: Since death is the punishment for sin, Christ died willingly in our place to deliver us from the power and penalty of sin and bring us back to God. By his substitutionary atoning death, he alone redeems us from hell and gains for us forgiveness of sin, righteousness, and everlasting life.
