For Reflection for Worship –

Therefore, as you received Christ Jesus the Lord, so walk in him, rooted and built up in him and established in the faith, just as you were taught, abounding in thanksgiving.

Colossians 2:6-7

1 Chronicles 16:31-34

Let the heavens be glad, and let the earth rejoice, and let them say among the nations, “The LORD reigns!” Let the sea roar, and all that fills it; let the field exult, and everything in it! Then shall the trees of the forest sing for joy before the LORD, for he comes to judge the earth. Oh give thanks to the LORD, for he is good; for his steadfast love endures forever!

Call to Confession

Galatians 6:7-10

Do not be deceived: God is not mocked, for whatever one sows, that will he also reap. For the one who sows to his own flesh will from the flesh reap corruption, but the one who sows to the Spirit will from the Spirit reap eternal life. And let us not grow weary of doing good, for in due season we will reap, if we do not give up. So then, as we have opportunity, let us do good to everyone, and especially to those who are of the household of faith.

Prayer of Adoration and Confession

Assurance of Pardon

Colossians 1:9-14

And so, from the day we heard, we have not ceased to pray for you, asking that you may be filled with the knowledge of his will in all spiritual wisdom and understanding, so as to walk in a manner worthy of the Lord, fully pleasing to him, bearing fruit in every good work and increasing in the knowledge of God; being strengthened with all power, according to his glorious might, for all endurance and patience with joy; giving thanks to the Father, who has qualified you to share in the inheritance of the saints in light. He has delivered us from the domain of darkness and transferred us to the kingdom of his beloved Son, in whom we have redemption, the forgiveness of sins.

New City Catechism #33

Q: Should those who have faith in Christ seek their salvation through their own works, or anywhere else?

A: No, they should not, as everything necessary to salvation is found in Christ. To seek salvation through good works is a denial that Christ is the only Redeemer and Savior.

A Letter from the Iowa Presbytery

Dear Brothers and Sisters at Colfax Center Church,

On behalf of Iowa Presbytery, it is a privilege to send you this official letter of the presbytery. While your congregation has been a part of Iowa Presbytery from its beginning, you were a part of Heartlands Presbytery for years before that. The Lord has clearly been using the place where you have gathered today long before our denomination even existed.

Today you have brothers and sisters across the state praying for you and celebrating with you the many ways our Creator had planned to use you to spread the Gospel and to minister to the people surrounding you in the middle of this nation.

As you look ahead, continue to seek to serve our Lord, do not be afraid when the tasks ahead seem larger than anything you can handle. Continue to seek to serve God and rely upon His grace, His mercy, and His power. As you do, do not be surprised when God accomplishes more than you could even dream.

While I have the privilege of sending this and speaking on their behalf, this letter truly comes from brothers and sisters in PCA Churches across this state listed below.

In God’s Grace,
Larry Doughan
Iowa Presbytery Stated Clerk
